Mr. Irmscher stated further that this expansion is necessary for their survival in this location. He stated they had applied with EDC and had initial approval on the project. He stated that without the vacation of the alley they would be unable to expand and would be forced to relocate, most likely outside of the city limits.

Ben Eisbart suggested that Mr. Irmscher and/or his attorney meet with the neighbors who were in opposition and see if they could work out an agreement to settle their differences.
